

ILCA and the Chicago Botanic Garden have come together to present this comprehensive day of education on lawn care education, products and resources. Lawn care is a big part of many of our businesses and organizations. Whether you choose to subcontract some of those services, or provide them in-house, it is critical to your profitability and customers' satisfaction to stay informed about the latest turf care products and practices. This day of training and education is for any professional who cares for and looks after turf.
