

Brenda Ward

Brenda Ward is the VP of Business Ops and Administration with Beary Landscaping based in Lockport, IL. She has been a part of the Green Industry for nearly 20 years and is fortunate enough to have spent time in many positions within the industry and working with and learning from many talented Industry Professionals. Her passion and drive comes from leadership and helping others, particularly women, recognize their potential and find opportunities to lead them to success.